Peter "Cactus Pete" Piersanti moved to Nev in 1953 when Idaho outlawed slots. Opened a place in Contact, Nev 1954. In 1956 moved 15 miles north to town now known as Jackpot, Nev (first known as Horseshoe, Nev), to compete with other small casinos called "Horseshoe" and named his Cactus Pete's. In 1964 Cactus Pete's took over management of Horseshoe.

Enter Nielsen family in 1967. A construction contractor who buys shares in Cactus Pete's Horseshoe. Ray Neilson dies 1971, shares passed to son, Craig. Craig became president of Cactus Pete's + sole shareholder in 1987
