

Indian Casinos

Arizona Indian Casinos

first opened 6-92

7-93 governor signs compact with 8 Indian Tribes allowing slot machines 11-93 12 tribes have compacts

5 casinos are open

12-3-94 there are now 11 casinos open and compacts have been signed for 7 more 9-94 all live games are still illegal in Arizona

There are 21 tribes in Ariz, but not all are interested in gaming none for - Hopi Indians or Navajo Nation

6-95 Az. governor announces he will no longer negotiate compacts for Indian Casinos. Only new gaming will be lotteries, parimutuel wagering & off track betting. Also when existing compacts expire in 8 years (2003) none will be renewed

8-95 Navajo Nations may start an Indian lottery, but still have no plans for live gaming. 4-96 Navajo's now considering casinos. Possible one near Navajo Az west of Gallup on route to Grand Canyon.

5-23-96 16 tribes have casinos

5 others have applied -

Salt River Pima - Maricopa

Navajo Nation

Havasupai

San Juan Southern Paiute

11-7-96 voters ^{vote was 2 to 1 for} approved measure requiring state to negotiate gaming compacts with AZ Indians seeking deals to create Indian casinos.

16 tribes have compacts 4 do not

Leelanau Sands Casino (Suttons Bay) Peshawbestown, Mi

THE SANDS OVER TIME

In January 1984, the Keweenaw Bay Indian Community issued a gaming license to tribal members Fred and Sybil Dakota, who opened Michigan's first Native American owned and operated casino in Baraga. The Grand Traverse Band of Ottawa and Chippewa Indians followed suit in May, 1984 with Leelanau Sands Casino, the state's second oldest casino. The Sands featured six blackjack tables, three poker tables, a Money Wheel and fifteen slot machines.

Major expansions in 1991, 1995, and 1999 created room for over 900 slot machines, and many new table games including blackjack, High Stakes Blackjack, Two-Deck Pitch BlackJack, craps, Let-It-Ride, roulette, Caribbean Stud, Three Card and Seven Card Stud poker, and the Money Wheel.

Other amenities include the 1,000 seat state-of-the-art Sands Showroom, Double Eagle Restaurant, Eagle's Ridge Conference Center, The Lodge Hotel and The Lodge Chalet.
