SUBJECT: TAYLOR & CO.
Manufacturers of gambling equipment
4848 West 25th Street
Cicero, Illinois

Visited this company on September 13th, for the purpose of discussing the production of records, and in this connection, conferred with Mr. R. L. O'Donnell, who works for the Union Carbide Company, but also does some auditing for the Taylor Co., having set their books up, on the basis of friendship with some of the partners.

The following are some notes made during the course of the discussion with Mr. O'Donnell:

R. J. Ans<sup>x</sup>ni came into the company in 1938, as a partner. The other partners are Auippa, whom he referred to as the Santa Claus of the company; John "Screwy" Moore, alias Claud Maddix, and Ray Johnson. One of the former partners was Geary Taylor, whom O'Donnell alleged as taken into the concern because of friendship with the partners. He got out around August 1, 1947. O'Donnell said he left in a huff and could not get along with the other partners; that he was discourteous to customers, etc. This does not tie in with the rumor that Taylor was eased out, or muscled out.

The company does what is known as Casino trade, manufacturing furniture used for gambling purposes, such as crap tables, lay-outs and dice. A greater proportion of its business is apparently in the manufacture of dice.

The manufacturing plant was inspected on the invitation of O'Donnell. The company does not do what is known as a hustler trade - that is the manufacture of crooked dice.

O'Donnell referred to the Mason Company in Chicago, as one which engaged in the business of this sort. Subsequent checking at the Crime Commission indicated that the Mason Company has changed its name to the K. C. Company, or some such name. O'Donnell stated that there was a Wills Company, in Detroit, and a Trey-Ball Company in St. Louis that manufactured gambling equipment.

The business of Taylor & Co., is off at the present time because of investigation. O'Donnell indicated that there was a distinct relationship between investigations and the volume of business.

O'Donnell handed over certain documents regarding the partnership and income tax. A spot check was made of the 1948 cancelled checks. A few checks were found payable to the ORCHID FLOWER SHOP for the purchase of flowers. O'Donnell was asked why they would be purchasing flowers from this particular shop, and he said that they carried very good flower pieces. He was asked if he knew who the owner was and he said he thought it was the wife of somebody by the name of Louis - the last name he couldn't remember.

The Orchid Flower Shop is reported to be owned by the wife of Louis Campagna and the wife of Anthony Capezio.

There were also checks payable to the INDIVIDUAL TOWEL COMPANY.

The only signers of the checks for this particular year were Ansani and Johnson. Auippa and Moore's names did not appear as makers of any checks.

There was also a check in the sum of $2,000.00 dated August 13, 1948, which was made out to cash, and the stub indicated it was paid to the REX ELECTRIC COMPANY, 4900 Lexington Street. This presumably was for some electrical equipment or service, but O'Donnell could not explain why the check should be made out to cash rather than to the company.

There was a check made out by Ansani, dated October 19, 1948, payable to the National Republican Organization of Illinois, for $50.00., and a check dated August 4, 1949, by Ray Johnson, to the Central Democratic Party of Cook County, for $25.00.

The Accounts Payable indicated on November 26, 1948, payment of $50.00 to Dreamland, which O'Donnell explained was for the return of a table. Dreamland is reported to be operated by MIMI CAPONE.

September 18, 1950

SUBJECT: TAYLOR & CO. (Cont'd)

There was also a transaction with J. CORNGOLD, which O'Donnell explained as being a payment made to Corngold for the sale of an old table.

There were also three or four other dealings with DREAMLAND, INC.

When the accounts receivable was requested for examination, O'Donnell left the room to get the document, and on his return, he showed a considerable amount of reluctance about having this book leave the possession of the company. He stated that if the information in this book got out, it would ruin the company. The thought in back of this was, every account, or the majority of the accounts on the book is reported sales to people conducting gambling operations throughout the country, in violation of State laws, with the possible exception of the State of Nevada.

I told O'Donnell he would have to produce the book to Washington before the Committee, unless he gave it to me, and that if he did so, it would only be sent back to me for examination. The upshot of the conversation was that he would like to discuss the matter with the partners and he would let me know in a day or so, but that he was inclined to believe that it would be sent to Washington. I told him that if this was his decision, it should be sent immediately, and I wanted to be notified when it was sent. I called him the next day and asked him if he had sent the book, and he said that he had not sent it, but would call me back later and let me know what the final decision was.

The next day, one of the employees of the company produced the Accounts Receivable at our office in the Federal Building.

See Auiippa and Moore.
